Day 2: Magic Towns and Day of the Dead Celebrations

Note: we recommend taking a day pack with warm clothes for the evening, as we do not return to the hotel before evening activities.

Breakfast (included) in hotel, followed by departure to the Magic Town of Tzintzuntzan (approximately 1 hour transfer). Explanation of the Yácatas de Tzintzuntzan archaeological site (not accessible by vehicle on these dates, but optional walk to enter the archaeological site), and free time to explore the town and cemetery of Tzintzuntzan, where you can appreciate the impressive flower arrangements, altars, and offerings as they are put into place for the evening celebrations. Transfer to Pátzcuaro (approximately 30 minutes). Orientation from our guide, followed by free time for lunch and time to enjoy the impressive artisan market and Magic Town of Pátzcuaro.

6 pm: Dinner (included) in Pátzcuaro and chance to change clothing and rest before evening activities.

8 pm: Travel to the lakeside towns to see the impressive sights of the cemeteries glowing in candle light and the crowds of people celebrating the lives and memories of their lost loved ones.

Approximate arrival time to hotel in Morelia: 1 am - dependent on traffic conditions.

Accommodation: Morelia

Day 3: Morelia and transfer to Guadalajara
